Bridget Klein impresses with win at off-island half-marathon...

Bridget Klein, Good Hope Country Day track and field coach and the top female long distance runner in the Virgin Islands took first place for female runners in the Optim Orthopedic Skidaway Island Half-Marathon near Savannah, Georgia and an equally impressive fourth place overall with a time of 1:27.38 and that was in a field of 419 runners male and female. Bridget is progressing with the addition of becoming a mom to Michael in 2018. She was a steeplechase competitor in college (event not contested in the V.I. to date) and is a V.I. National Champion for 10k road, half-marathon and 50 miles.
